Enterprise Supplier Development

Do you need Enterprise Development points?

Do you need to find a BEE supplier?

Or do you have a BEE Supplier that you need to develop?

We can help.

The Hope Factory has been developing entrepreneurs and their businesses for 12 years, and as a non-profit development organisation not only can we assist you to score your ED points, but we can also help you achieve real Enterprise Supplier Development.

We believe that strategic business mentorship and financial training is the key to developing emerging businesses in this country and our programme is built on these core elements.

Our stress free end to end process ensures that you can achieve your Enterprise and Supplier development objectives.
